

Recording a Song

Recording to Internal Memory

1 Select “Memory” as the destination.

2 Start recording.

3 Start playing your song.

4 Stop recording.

Listen to your performance right now?

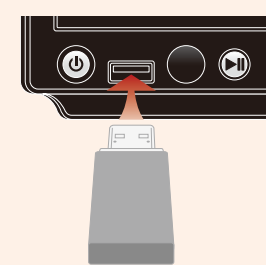

Learn More?

- To record along with the metronome >> See page 47 on Operation Manual.
- To record L and R parts separately >> See page 49 on Operation Manual.
- To record L and R parts with the split point set >> See page 51 on Operation Manual.
- To change the recording tempo >> See page 54 on Operation Manual.
- To manage albums >> See page 61 on Operation Manual.

Recording to a USB Flash Memory

1 Insert a USB flash memory.

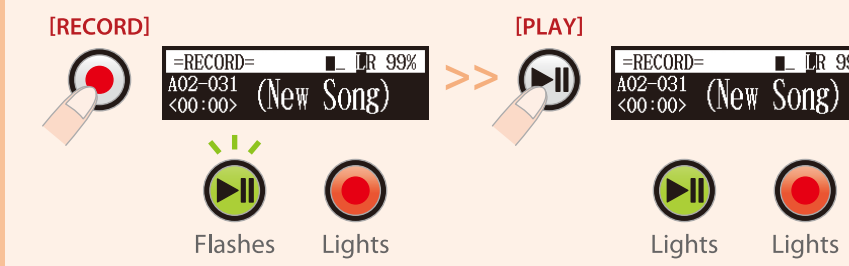

Note: Yamaha does not assure the operation of commercially available USB flash memories. For a list of compatible products, please visit: www.yamaha.com/disklavier.

2 Select “USB1” as the destination.

3 Start recording.

4 Start playing your song.

5 Stop recording.

Listen to your performance right now?

Learn More?

- To record along with the metronome >> See page 47 on Operation Manual.
- To record L and R parts separately >> See page 49 on Operation Manual.
- To record L and R parts with the split point set >> See page 51 on Operation Manual.
- To change the recording tempo >> See page 54 on Operation Manual.
- To manage albums >> See page 61 on Operation Manual.